HONORABLE GERI D. PALAST, Of Counsel to Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman, is a Root-Tilden Public Service Law Scholar from New York University School of Law, and an honors graduate of Stanford University. Ms. Palast directs the Firm's program reaching out to institutional investors in areas of litigation, policy and public affairs. Formerly, she was the founder and executive director of the Justice at Stake Campaign, a national organization working to ensure fair and impartial courts. From 1993-2000, she was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve as Assistant Secretary of Labor for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs during President Clinton's two terms under Labor Secretaries Robert Reich and Alexis Herman. She also served on the President's

Interagency Council on Women, where she chaired the Committee on Women in the Global Economy. The Committee monitored U.S. compliance with the Beijing Platform for Women. She was a member of the U.S. delegation to Women 2000 at the United Nations. Her focus was the impact of globalization on women.

Prior to joining the Clinton Administration, Ms. Palast was the Political and Legislative Director of Service Employees International Union, 1981-1993. In 1979, she established and ran the Washington office of the National Employment Law Project, a program of the Legal Services Corporation. Earlier in her career, she worked for the National Treasury Employees Union and AFSCME (American Federation of State County and Municipal Employees).

Throughout her career, Ms. Palast has organized and directed numerous broad-based national and grassroots legislative and issue campaigns. She founded and co-chaired the bipartisan coalition that was responsible for enacting the landmark Family and Medical Leave Act. As Assistant Secretary, she was a leader in the successful policy and legislative efforts to enact the minimum wage increase, the Workforce Investment Act—the overhaul of the nation's employment and training system, Welfare to Work, School to Work, and the historic congressional ratification of the International Labor Organization (ILO) international convention against abusive child labor. She worked on numerous pension reform legislative and regulatory matters. She has also been a strategic adviser to many electoral campaigns.

Ms. Palast has served on numerous boards and advisory committees. She has also lectured at colleges and universities. Ms. Palast is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, and she is an inactive member of the California State Bar.

DEBORAH M. STURMAN received a Prix d'Excellence from the Royal Brussels Conservatory and a J.D. degree from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law.

Ms. Sturman conceived of, and, together with senior partner Melvyn Weiss, filed the first suits in United States courts on behalf of Holocaust-era slave labor victims, leading to recoveries of approximately $7 billion. She has been profiled in both The Wall Street Journal and Financial Times for her innovative lawyering and regularly appears as a legal commentator in the German, Dutch, French, Swiss and Belgian media as well as on numerous international and national Continuing Legal Education panels for complex and international litigation.

Since the early 1990's, Ms. Sturman has represented Holocaust survivors and their heirs seeking restitution of real property in the former East Germany "Aryanized" during World War II, and assisted European investors in connection with their United States investments. She is fluent in German and Dutch/Flemish and conversant in French and Italian.

Ms. Sturman is admitted to the bar of California, and the Supreme Court of the State of California. She is also admitted to the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, the U.S. Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, and the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

CHRISTOPHER S. JONES received his B.A. degree in economics cum laude from the University of Akron in 1991, and his J.D. degree from DePaul University College of Law in 1996.

Mr. Jones began his legal career as an attorney with a prominent corporate defense firm where he gained extensive litigation experience in a variety of areas, including complex litigation, class actions, and appellate litigation. His reported victories there spanned federal and state courts, including Conway v. Royalite, 12 S.W. 3d 314 (Mo. 2001), Fletcher v. Conoco Pipeline Co., 129 F. Supp. 2d 1255 (W.D. Mo. 2001), Clay v. American Tobacco Co., 188 F.R.D. 483, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19515 (S.D. Ill. 1999), and West Virginia-Ohio Valley Area I.B.E.W. Welfare Fund v. American Tobacco Co., 188 F.R.D. 425 (S.D. W. Va. 1999).

Mr. Jones joined Milberg Weiss in 2001. His practice focuses on securities class action litigation, corporate derivative litigation, and consumer class action litigation. Along with his colleagues, his securities class action victories and settlements include In re Hamilton Bancorp Securities Litigation, 194 F. Supp. 2d 1353 (S.D. Fla. 2002) (defeating motion to dismiss; $8.5 million settlement), In re UniCapital Corp. Securities Litigation, Case No. 00-2054 (S.D. Fla. 2002) (defeating corporation's motion to dismiss; $5.2 million settlement), In re Mirant Securities Litigation, Case No. 1:02-CV-1467 (N.D. Ga. 2003) (defeating motions to dismiss; case pending); In re Intercept Securities Litigation, Case No. 1:03-CV-567 (N. D. Ga. 2004) ($5.5 million settlement), and In re AES Securities Litigation, Case No. 1:03-CV-284 (S.D. In. 2004) ($5 million settlement).

Mr. Jones also has extensive experience in prosecuting corporate derivative actions. Notably, he was one of the lead counsel in the widely reported case involving FPL Group (NYSE:FPL), a large public utility holding company. After nearly three years of intense litigation, which included a victory on the defendants' motions to dismiss (see Klein v. FPL Group, Inc., 2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 919, 2004 WL 302292 (S.D. Fla. Jan. 20, 2004)), eight FPL executives, and their insurer, have agreed to return $22.25 million dollars in compensation to the company. The settlement represents a groundbreaking recovery, standing as one of the largest amounts of money ever returned to a public company by members of its management in an executive compensation type lawsuit.

Mr. Jones is a member of the Firm's Technology Committee. In 2005, Mr. Jones was admitted to the Georgia State Bar.
